We, the ACF Chicago Chefs Board, want to express our deepest support to our hospitality community and the public at large against the spread of COVID-19 pandemic. We are in difficult, unchartered times, however, together we can continue to encourage and care for one another. Your health and safety is our key priority and we thank you for all your efforts. "Alone we can do so little; together we can do so much"- Helen Keller

Until our officials authorize public gatherings, our Chapter will continue to abstain from in person events. Having said that, here are a few online opportunities you can participate in:

Support Resources

<http://chefswithissues.com/resources/> on this site, they invite people involved in the industry (not just chefs) to share their stories and resources for dealing with the particular pressures of restaurant life, so that other people may feel less alone. The site also connects you with other resources such as: Chefs With Issues Facebook Community; Fair Kitchens; spearheaded by Unilever and I Got Your Back; A forum that offers insights, learnings and tips to support the physical and mental health and wellness of wine professionals around the world.

Respectfully,

Don Zajac
